TRI Director of Communications Division, Barbara Hutchison is Honored with National Library of Medicine Award

Bethesda, Maryland (December 11, 2008): TRI is pleased to announce Barbara Hutchison, the Director of TRI's Communications Division, has been honored with an NLM award through the National Library of Medicine, National Institutes of Health under the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services. Barbara Hutchison has been recognized in a Group Award from the National Center for Biotechnology Information (NCBI) in recognition of her outstanding diligence and successful effort in preparing, directing, and managing logistics for the scientific conference celebrating the 25th anniversary of GenBank.

TRI would like to extend warm congratulations to Barbara Hutchison, for maintaining the level of client service excellence established here at TRI. Barbara Hutchison and her team have had the pleasure to serve the National Library of Medicine through integrated marketing services for the past four years by providing multi-media support in their pivotal role of enabling biomedical research, supporting health care and public health and serving as the world's preeminent medical library. 2008 marks the 25th anniversary of GenBank, a major milestone in NCBI's history. GenBank began as a collection of 600 DNA sequences for the entire year of 1982. GenBank now includes approximately 130 million sequences from 300,000 species.
